December Work Party Wet, But Still Productive

We had 18 somewhat soaked but thoroughly energetic folks show up for the December work party.

Major strides were made in the Bathhouse remodel as we demoed the walls on the women's side, framed for doors and walls and prepped for tile on the men's side.

The new playground area was leveled and layout of the freshly painted playground equipment was started.

On the block cabins, we scrapped popcorn from 3 cabin ceilings, installed wood ceiling in cabins 8 and 14 and cut out wood horseshoes for a cabin ceiling.

We prepped the kitchen for installation of reconditioned equipment.

Other projects, too numerous to list — we burned a pile of trash, cut cedar for an upcoming fund-raising project, replaced batteries on the golf carts, met with electricians on kitchen and bath improvements, put hearty siding on covers for the pipes at the pump house and well number 3, covered the sewer coming out of cabin 40, worked on the cover for plumbing under the slide at the pool, cleaned and put 7 new trash cans into service and drank lots of hot chocolate.
