

Hello Pastors, Schedulers and Visiting Speakers:

I'm enclosing the visiting ministry schedule for the second quarter of 2019. Thank you for responding to my earlier e-mail inquiring about availability – it's very helpful! Several visiting ministers indicated they weren't available to preach in the first quarter, but I hope I've been able to meet most of the needs for congregations.

As always, if the scheduled date isn't convenient for either the guest minister or the visited congregation, please work out a mutually agreeable date and notify me of the change (strictly for me to keep the records accurate).

Please let me know of any contact information changes, any congregational leadership changes, or other information you feel will help me keep everyone up to date. I'm not sure yet who will be taking over this scheduling ministry, but until you hear from me you can continue sending your updates to me at jpostnikoff@gpalaw.com.

Blessings,

JFP
