“Young Ladies Sit and Chat”

Sponsored by Community of Christ

Hello!

I have become aware of a need to bring young women together who are fresh out of college, back home with few friends or beginning to be more independent. Many are alone and in need of just a good friend to talk to. They could be newly married and just beginning their families. Seeing that need for friendship, I felt it was a good time to start a young Ladies “Sit and Chat” group. We are trying to meet once a month.

What's Happening

I gathered a few names from the Mission Center and we held our first meeting in January. We came together at BJ's in North Richland Hills for a meal and time to visit and share information. Samantha and Rebekah were able to attend and we planned our February meeting. We met again at BJ's and had three who were able to attend. Finding a time that is open is a challenge but we will keep working to meet that need. We want to extend this invitation to those young women who would like to meet new friends, share a meal and some time together.
